Liability Release

I, the undersigned (parent or guardian), do hereby give my permission for my child, _____ to be a client of The Arc Mid-South for respite care, weekend retreats, camp, and other special services.

In recognition of services rendered and benefits conferred by The Arc Mid-South, the undersigned hereby releases and forever discharges the officers, directors, agents, or employees of The Arc Mid-South and its providers or employees of The Arc Mid-South from any claim for damage or suit by reason of injury, illness, or damage to person or property during the course of Arc of the Mid-South services, including transportation to or from any location while in the care of a provider or employee.

If this client should require any minor medical or surgical treatment and/or medication during his/her services with Arc of the Mid-South, I authorize such physician or medical staff as Arc of the Mid-South may appoint or designate to carry out the necessary treatment or take the client to the emergency room of the nearest hospital. I further authorize the hospital and its medical staff to provide treatment deemed necessary by them for the well being of the client. I further authorize the provider of the weekend retreat supervisor to give the client medication in its specific dosage and at indicated time(s) written by me. I release The Arc Mid-South and the provider or supervisor from liability on account or injury of damage as related above. It is understood, however, that if hospitalization or the treatment of a more serious nature is required, I will be contacted for permission. I understand that I, as parent/guardian, am financially responsible for such medical costs incurred and that Arc of the Mid-South is released from any liability in connection with said expenses.

I hereby irrevocably grant The Arc Mid-South permission to use my child's (or relative's) picture in agency brochures and for related media use in furthering the objective of the organization. I hereby release them from any and all claims in its usage.

I the undersigned am a parent or guardian of the above-specified client. I have fully read and understood the provisions of the above releases. I hereby agree that said client and I will be bound thereby and I shall defend you and hold you harmless from and disaffirmation thereof by said clients.

DISCRIMINATION IS PROHIBITED

TITLE VI OF THE CIVIL RIGHTS ACT OF 1964 REQUIRES THAT FEDERALLY ASSISTED PROGRAMS BE FREE OF DISCRIMINATION. THE TENNESSEE DEPARTMENT OF INTELLECTUAL AND DEVELOPMENTAL DISABILITIES ALSO REQUIRES THAT ITS ACTIVITIES BE CONDUCTED WITHOUT REGARD TO RACE, COLOR, OR NATIONAL ORIGIN.

Prohibited Practices Include:

- Denying any individual any services, opportunity, or other benefit for which he or she is otherwise qualified;
- Providing any individual with any service or other benefit, which is different or is provided in a different manner from that which is provided to others under the program;
- Subjecting any individual to segregated or separate treatment in any manner related to his or her receipt of service;
- Restricting any individual in any way in the enjoyment of services; facilities; or any other advantage, privilege, or benefit provided to others under the program;
- Adopting methods of administration that would limit participation by any group of persons supported or subject them to discrimination;
- Addressing an individual in a manner that denotes inferiority because of race, color, or national origin;
- Subjecting any individual to incidents of racial or ethnic harassment, the creation of a hostile racial or ethnic environment, and a disproportionate burden of environmental health risks on minority communities.

Should you feel you have been discriminated against, please contact the local Title VI coordinator.

- (1) The following rights must be afforded to all clients by all licensees and are not subject to modification.
- (a) Clients have the right to be fully informed before or upon admission about their rights and responsibilities and about any limitations on these rights imposed by the facility. The facility must ensure that the client is given oral and/or written rights information that includes the following:
1. A statement of the specific rights guaranteed the client by these rules and applicable to state law.
 2. A description of the facility's grievance procedure.
 3. A listing of all available services
 4. A copy of all general facility rules

Clients must be present when the information is presented in a manner that promotes understanding, and they must be given the opportunity to ask questions. If a client who is unable to understand this information at the time of admission later becomes able to do so, the information must be presented to him/her at that time. If a client is likely to continue indefinitely to be unable to understand this information, the facility must promptly attempt to provide the information to a parent, guardian or other appropriate person or agency responsible for protecting the client's rights.

- (b) Clients have the right to voice grievances to facility staff, licensees and outside representatives of their choice with freedom from restraint, interference, coercion, discrimination or reprisal.
- (c) Clients have the right to be treated with consideration, respect and full recognition of their dignity and individuality.
- (d) Clients have the right to be protected by licensee from neglect; physical, verbal and emotional abuse (including corporal punishment), and all forms of exploitation.
- (e) Clients have the right to be assisted by the facility in the exercise of their civil rights.
- (f) Clients have the right to be free of any requirement by the facility that they perform services that usually are performed by facility staff.
- (g) If residential services are provided, clients must be allowed to send personal mail unopened and to receive mail and packages that might be opened in the presence of staff when there is reason to believe that the contents thereof might harm the client or others.

ADDENDUM: The Arc Mid-South Grievance Procedure for Clients

Clients may contact the director of Family Support Services with any grievance concerning a provider or retreat/camp staff member and/or the services provided. If clients do not receive a satisfactory response within a month of the initial complaint, the client may contact the executive director. If the grievance concerns the FSS director, clients may report their grievance directly to the executive director. If they do not receive a satisfactory response within a month and/or matters are not resolved to the client's satisfaction, they may request in writing further review of the matter with the Personnel Committee chairperson. If the chairperson thinks the situation warrants further review, he/she will ask the president for assistance.

I, the parent/guardian/client, have read the above client rights and grievance procedure for The Arc Mid-South. I understand the content and agree to abide by the policies and procedure set forth in this document.
